

International Healthcare Plans for Lebanon

Allianz SNA, in collaboration with Allianz Worldwide Care and NEXtCARE, offers an international healthcare solution designed for residents in Lebanon.

Allianz

Allianz SNA, part of the Allianz Group, offers all lines of insurance products to its clients. Today Allianz SNA is serving over 83,000 customers in over 12 branches, through more than 180 employees and 250 exclusive agents. Allianz SNA is also proud to contribute to its society through supporting civic actions such as road safety and health awareness and sponsoring and promoting environmental and cultural events.

Allianz Worldwide Care, the award winning international health division of Allianz Worldwide Partners, provides insurance solutions for health on a global scale. The company's structure, product design and market leading support services have been specifically developed to meet the health insurance needs of individuals, families and corporate groups.

NEXtCARE Lebanon is one of the MENA's largest Third Party Administrators (TPAs) and provides 24/7 multilingual support to members, as well as a direct billing and partner network encompassing over 11,000 healthcare providers in 14 countries.

We are all part of the Allianz Group, founded in 1890, which is one of the leading global services providers in insurance and asset management.

Our roles

- Allianz SNA is the insurer for all policies.
- Allianz Worldwide Care provides administration services for treatments outside Lebanon.
- NEXtCARE administers policies within Lebanon.

Together we offer a comprehensive range of plans and member services that are managed within the Allianz family. We are all driven by our combined aim to deliver market leading service that is fast, flexible and totally reliable.

Key reasons to choose one of our international healthcare plans

A single supplier solution – our healthcare plans are provided, monitored and managed directly by Allianz.

Flexible, modular plan design means cover can be adapted to suit a range of different budgets.

Comprehensive range of benefits including exceptional cover for chronic and congenital conditions.

Ability to accept a wide range of pre-existing conditions on cover.

Choice of two geographical region of cover options.

Direct settlement available for in-patient and out-patient treatments via NEXtCARE Lebanon, plus access to Allianz Worldwide Care's global medical network.

Access to a 24/7 multilingual Helpline for general queries and emergency assistance.

Easily transfer to an equivalent Allianz Worldwide Care International Healthcare Plan if relocating outside Lebanon (where available).

This information is for introductory purposes. It is not legally binding on any parties. For legal contractual rights and obligations, please refer to our insurance policy documents.

A flexible range of international healthcare products

Clients are offered a selection of Core Plans, which cover a wide range of in-patient and day-care treatments plus other benefits such as medical evacuation, oncology (covered at full refund), rehabilitation treatment and palliative care.

Clients can also supplement their chosen Core Plan by adding an Out-patient, Dental, Maternity and/or Repatriation Plan.

To help reduce healthcare premiums we offer a range of deductible options, plus two different geographical regions of cover to choose from (i.e. where cover applies). This flexibility ensures that cover is appropriate based on the client's particular set of needs and budget.
